

NEWSLETTER

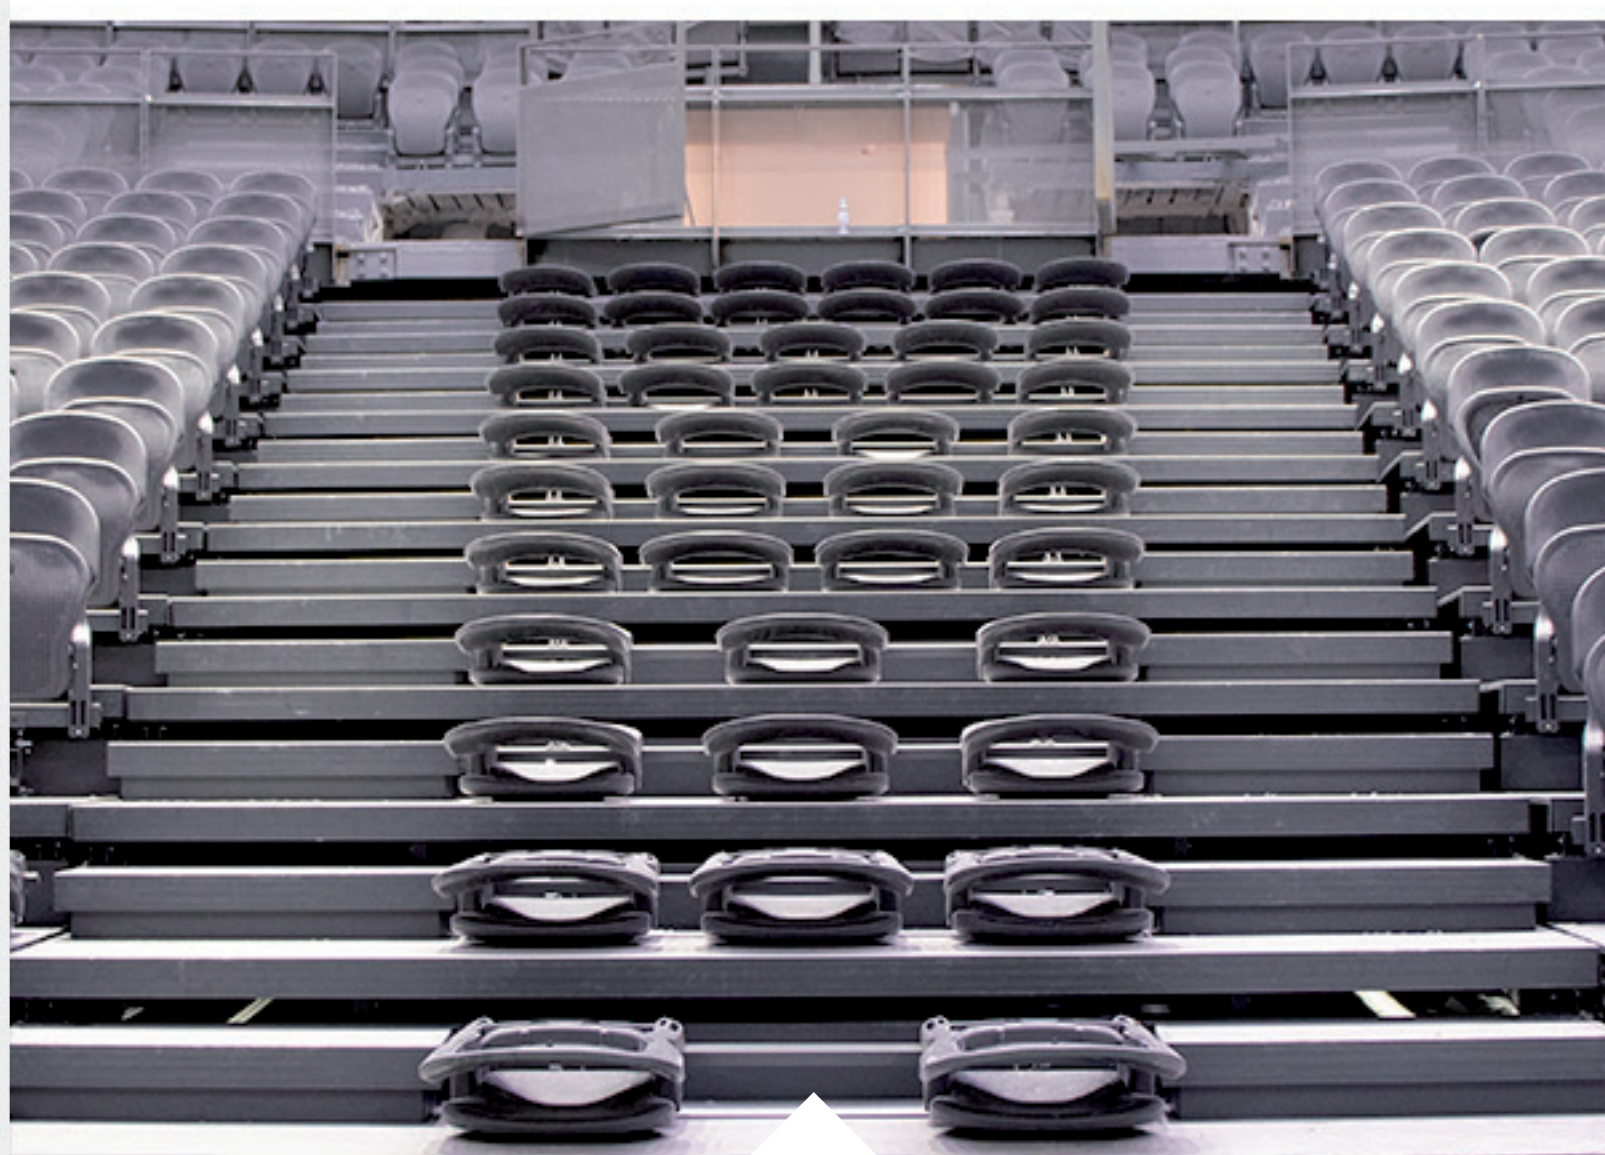

16

SUPER BOCK ARENA
PAVILHÃO ROSA MOTA

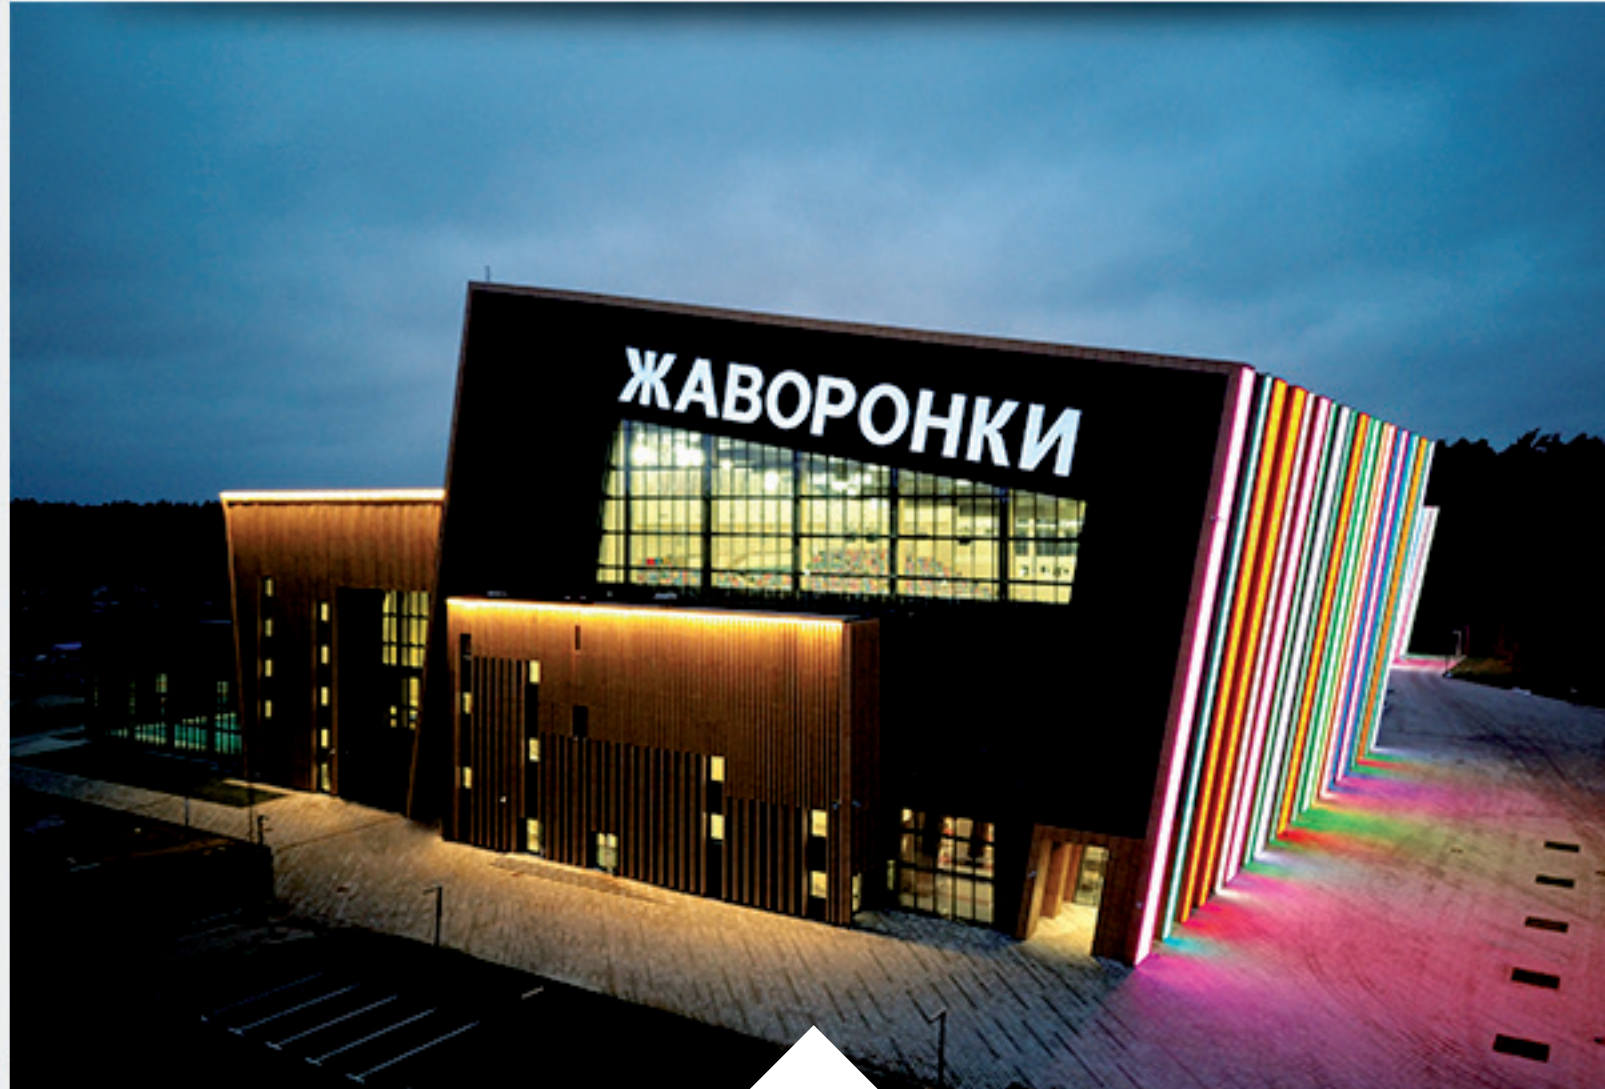

A NEW VISION OF SPORTS HALLS

Super Bock Arena - Pavilhão Rosa Mota, Portugal

ARCHITECTS: Ferreira de Almeida Arquitetos Lda.

The iconic building Pavilhão Rosa Mota, newly renamed to Super Bock Arena - Pavilhão Rosa Mota, was entirely refurbished and retrofitted so as to effectively cope with the city's demands of hosting large cultural, sporting, and business events.

Multi functional Zhavoronki Sports Centre, Russia

ARCHITECTS: Magnum Sports

This trend-setting, impressive building located in Zhavoronki may be transformed to host competitions in 22 different sports - something never before seen in any Russian venue.

Puskás Ferenc Labdarúgó Akadémia, Hungary

ARCHITECTS: Tamás Dobrosi

Felcsút is a community of 1800 souls in the Váli Valley, 40 kilometres west of Budapest, the capital of Hungary. Since 2004, the locality has hosted the largest education center for aspiring young footballers in the country. In 2006, the institution was renamed after one of football's great legends, Olympic and European champion Ferenc Puskas

